

Hong Kong's Flickering Hopes REVIEW

WSJ

A Long Weekend in Motor City
OFF DUTY

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL WEEKEND

D DOW JONES | News Corp * * * * *

SATURDAY/SUNDAY, JUNE 22 - 23, 2019 ~ VOL. CCLXXIII NO. 145

WSJ.com

What's News

World-Wide

Rising tension between the U.S. and Iran eased at least temporarily after Trump said he called off a planned military strike to spare Iranian lives, a development that opened the way for offers of international diplomacy. A1, A8

◆ The Supreme Court reaffirmed its strict prohibition against racial bias in jury selection, voting to overturn a black defendant's murder conviction in Mississippi. A4

◆ Barr's review of the Russia probe's origin is focused in part on the U.S. intelligence assessment that found Moscow intervened in the 2016 election to help Trump. A4

◆ Prosecutors have stepped up a probe into possible efforts by GOP fundraiser Broidy to profit from his ties to the Trump administration, people familiar with the matter say. A6

◆ Trump said he will formally nominate Army Sec-

A Rainy Welcome for the Summer Solstice

the big theory

MARK LENIHAN/ASSOCIATED PRESS

POSES FOR A CHANGE OF SEASONS: Showers greeted the Mind Over Madness yoga event celebrating the arrival of summer in New York's Times Square on Friday. The start of the season came with mostly cool and moist weather in parts of the country.

U.S. Restricts Technology Exports

W
H I r
T
The lives sides diplo

Ris
U.S. temp
Presi called strike lives,
open diplom leader
Mr. late T
tary
B An minut start woul